Frequently Asked Questions by International Students

What currency is used in Malta?

Malta is a member state of the European Union and its national currency is the Euro (Symbol = €). One Euro is approximately equivalent to 1.35 US Dollars (exchange rates will vary).

Are Student Visas difficult to obtain?

No. Malta adopts an extremely welcoming approach to bona fide international students and, provided you satisfy all entry requirements and security clearance, a visa will be issued following application through the established procedure. LSC Malta will be happy to advise and guide you through the visa application process.

Are there any special health precautions required when travelling to Malta?

No. Visitors do not need to take any special health precautions when travelling to Malta. The level of health care is of an extremely high standard. However, it is advisable to have medical insurance cover for the duration of your stay since medical treatment may be expensive and is only offered free of charge to residents of the European Union.

What languages are spoken in Malta?

The local language is Maltese with English being the other national language and spoken by all the population. Italian is also generally well understood and spoken, and a number of Maltese nationals have learnt French, and to a lesser extent, German or Spanish, at school or privately. Therefore most visitors will not have any difficulties in making themselves understood.

Can students work while following LSC Malta courses?

Yes. Students will be allowed to work in Malta. A variety of work opportunities ranging from jobs in the hospitality industry to professional placements can be found in Malta. Work rights are only guaranteed provided that you retain a high course attendance and can show good progress with your studies. LSC Malta will be obliged to report students who fail to attend classes or do not make good progress to the Maltese immigration authorities and the right to work may be withdrawn at their absolute discretion in such cases

BA (Hons) Business Management Studies

Total Fee €11,950

Duration 3 Years

Requirements

- ▶ At least 2 UK 'A' Levels or equivalent
- ▶ Should be at least 18 years old
- ▶ Students whose first language is not English, and who have not successfully completed a programme which has been taught and assessed in English, should have an English qualification equivalent to IELTS 6.0.

The BA (Hons) provides students with a broad knowledge of business operations as well as gaining targeted and transferable skills.

The core modules will deliver the fundamentals of business and management theory, while course options will enable students to specialise in specific areas of interest, or to prepare students for specialised professional requirements. In addition, a practical element will enable them to develop IT, analytical and communication skills.

This degree provides a good balance between academic achievement and the acquisition of skills/ "graduate attributes" required by employers. The programme, together with the Major Project module at Level 6, not only adds value that will be recognised by employers in an increasingly competitive environment, it but also offers another dimension to the experience. The additional value is the benefit upon graduation that enables graduates to fit into the work culture, do the job, develop ideas, take initiative and responsibility and ultimately help organisations to manage change.

Students who do not have the required English capabilities are able to study pre-sessional Academic English courses. LSC Malta offer 4, 8 and 12 month Academic English courses for €1,950, €2,950 and €3,950 respectively.

Reasons to study an MBA course

Building a Career

This is not just any MBA, but one from a reputable UK University, which can greatly enhance career prospects.

Advancement

An MBA provides a passport to promotion opportunities from junior to senior level management in multinational companies.

Employer's Preference

The current trend is for employers to recruit MBA postgraduates rather than undergraduates. Therefore, an MBA qualification will be a significant enhancement to any CV.

Increased Earnings

Research provides evidence that employees with an MBA qualification command higher salaries. This is true whether in Asia, the Middle East or Europe.

Employer's Recognition

Employers recognise the fact that an MBA is an advanced business degree of choice and provides the employee with the necessary skills and understanding of commercial operations to contribute to an internationally successful enterprise.

Critical Thinking

An MBA provides the essential tools for advanced critical thinking, creating a platform for successful interaction between colleagues from different backgrounds and areas of expertise. This improves an overall strategic, tactical and operational understanding of corporate structures.

Dynamism

An MBA qualification provides the necessary transferable skills to cope with the management of change in a work environment. The MBA course specifications include an emphasis on the development of entrepreneurship, business ethics, innovation and leadership skills.

Self-Actualisation

An MBA qualification is a means of improving confidence and self-attainment, both commercially and financially.

Mobility in the Global Job Market

Having an MBA qualification can ensure greater employee mobility and increase opportunities within the global job market.

Major Project

The Major Project is an intellectually challenging piece of extended management research equipping students with the capabilities and competencies required of today's managers.

Assessment

Each module consists of scheduled classes, guided learning and self-directed learning. Assessment is via a variety of assessment methods including coursework and the submission of a final stage Major Project

Transfer Credits

All students studying at LSC Malta have the unique opportunity to also study modules at one of the other LSC Group colleges. Please ask an LSC Malta representative for more details.
