Welcome to Lund University

Lund University, founded in 1666, is one of northern Europe's oldest, broadest and finest universities. Ranked among the world's top 100 universities, the University has 33 000 students on campus and 7 500 staff based in Lund, Helsingborg and Malmö. We are united in our efforts to understand, explain and improve our world and the human condition.

AN INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Lund University is consistently the most popular choice for international students coming to study in Sweden, attracting students from over 130 countries. This creates a global classroom environment where students encounter different cultural perspectives and start their international network. With a thriving student life and compact campus where everything is within cycling distance, the atmosphere in Lund is both international and intimate.

The University has a clear international profile, with partner universities in over 50 countries. We are also members of the research-intensive university networks, Universitas 21 (U21) and the League of European Research Universities – LERU.

As a study destination, Lund University offers one of Scandinavia's broadest ranges of programmes and courses taught in English, including exchange, study abroad, Bachelor's, Master's, PhD and professional studies.

STEEPED IN CENTURIES OF TRADITION

Lund University is one of the oldest learning institutions in Scandinavia. Officially established in 1666, Lund University can trace its roots to 1436 when it was recognised as a studium generale, an institution of international excellence. Steeped in centuries of tradition, Lund University has always been at the forefront of innovation with its modern and dynamic approach. The University has had the privilege of educating many Nobel laureates, prime ministers, a president and several notable leaders in society.

CUTTING-EDGE RESEARCH

Ultrasound, Bluetooth and dialysis are all examples of revolutionary discoveries that have their roots in research at Lund University. Funding of EUR 500 million a year goes to research at eight faculties, which gives us one of Sweden's strongest and broadest ranges of research activity. Over 30 of our research fields are world-leading.

WORLD-LEADING RESEARCH FACILITIES

Two of the world's leading materials research facilities are currently under construction in Lund: the MAX IV Laboratory will be one of the most important synchrotron radiation facilities in the world, and the European research facility ESS will house the world's most powerful neutron source. The two facilities will be of decisive importance for future scientific and industrial development in both materials science and life science.

TOP REASONS TO STUDY AT LUND UNIVERSITY

- Sweden's top-ranked university, ranked 67th in the world (QS World University Rankings 2013)
- The number one choice for international students studying in Sweden
- Lund is considered the best student city in Sweden with the unique combination of traditional student nations (social clubs), an academic society and student unions organising events and activities year round
- An international environment where 90% of Swedes speak English
- Sweden is one of the safest countries in the world and ranked as one of the best in which to live

EXPERIENCE FOUR DISTINCT SEASONS

Summers are warm and pleasant, 20 to 25°C (68 to 77°F) with up to 17 hours of daylight.

Winters are cold but Lund has a much milder winter climate compared to the rest of Sweden, -5 to 3°C (23 to 37°F) and down to 7 hours of daylight.

Spring is fresh and vibrant, 3 to 16°C (37 to 61°F).

Autumn is crisp and beautiful, 6 to 16°C (43 to 61°F).

Sweden

Home of the Nobel Prize, the world's most prestigious academic distinction, Sweden is a safe, modern and eco-conscious country with a great global reputation, stunning nature and among the world's highest living standards.

Sweden is the fifth largest country in Europe (450,000 square kilometres), but has a population of only 9.3 million.

Sweden is ranked as the second best country in the world when it comes to providing higher education (Universitas 21, 2014) and English is spoken by 90% of the population, allowing students to have a unique European experience without the language barrier.

As one of the world's most creative countries, Sweden has a proud tradition of innovation and entrepreneurship. Innovative research at universities and companies has resulted in many successful inventions, including the computer mouse, Bluetooth technology, the pacemaker, the ball bearing, the Tetra Pak beverage packaging system, the dialysis machine and internet applications such as the online music streaming service Spotify and the free internet calling service Skype.

There are more large internationally leading companies per capita in Sweden than in any other country. Sweden also registers among the highest rates of patents per capita in the world (World Economic Forum 2013). The Malmö region, including Lund, has also been named as the 4th most inventive in the world (Forbes: World's Most Inventive Cities 2013).

The Swedes have developed a form of society that fosters equality, cooperation and democracy in every aspect of life. Sweden has been praised internationally for its approach and ability to maintain a relatively healthy economy during times of global economic crisis. The Swedish welfare model also has a positive reputation as a responsible system that looks out for the long-term interest of all of its citizens.

Studying in Sweden not only means experiencing a new way of learning and thinking, but also the chance to enjoy Swedish culture and traditions, beautiful nature and a different way of life.

Campus Locations

LUND

Lund University's main campus is located in Lund – a small, safe city steeped in history, yet with the healthiest and youngest population in the country. There are 130 nationalities in Lund, making it a truly international city in which to study.

As one of the oldest cities in Sweden, dating back to 990, Lund is a city of contrasts where 1 000 years of history blend with modern knowledge and ideas. The combination of business, students and researchers from around the world has given birth to Lund's unique character as a city of strong research-based global industries.

The city itself is compact and charming, with picturesque old houses, cobbled streets and beautiful green surroundings. Student cafés, nightlife, a vibrant and intellectually stimulating atmosphere, rich culture and a wide assortment of leisure activities all help to make your stay a memorable experience.

The University lies in the heart of the city. In Lund everything is nearby – within reach on foot or by bicycle. There are frequent trains to nearby

Malmö, Helsingborg, Copenhagen and Copenhagen Airport (the closest international airport, 40 minutes away).

HELINGSBORG

Helsingborg is a scenic coastal city located 30 minutes by train from Lund. Around 4 000 students study at Campus Helsingborg in subjects including service management, strategic public relations, media studies, energy-efficient building design, social work and some undergraduate engineering courses. Most students studying at Campus Helsingborg also live in the city, which has popular beaches and a lively atmosphere.

MALMÖ

Malmö is the third largest city in Sweden and is only 10 minutes by train from Lund. Many Lund University students live in Malmö and commute to Lund, while students living in Lund often visit Malmö to enjoy the advantages of a big city. The city is home to Lund University's Faculty of Fine and Performing Arts. Public Health and other medical studies are also taught in Malmö.

HOUSING

Student corridor rooms are single bedrooms furnished with a bed and desk, either with a private en suite toilet, shower and wash basin or shared bathroom facilities. Corridor rooms have a shared kitchen and living area and a shared laundry room.

Studio flats are self-contained rooms with a combined bedroom, living area, small kitchenette and bathroom with a shower, toilet and wash basin. No areas are shared except the laundry room. One-bedroom apartments, shared apartments or lodging with a family are other student housing options.

LU Accommodation is a service at Lund University which manages some of the student housing available in Lund, Helsingborg and Malmö. The Academic Society, student nations and local private landlords provide additional student housing options.

LUND – THE CITY OF BIKES

Lund is a small city and the easiest way to get around is by bike. Lund has 160 kilometres of cycle paths, which makes it safe and easy to get from one side of the city to the other in 20 minutes or so. Most students live a 5-15 minute bike ride from class. It's easy to find a second-hand bike once you arrive in Lund and to join in the cycling culture.

RESIDENCE PERMIT

Citizens of countries outside of the EU/ EEA require a residence permit from the Swedish Migration Board to study in Sweden. You must be able to prove that you have funds to support yourself while living in Sweden (SEK 7 300 per month of study).

LIVING COSTS

A typical student budget to cover housing, food, clothing, books and leisure time is SEK 7 800 per month of study (US$1 200 or €860). A suggested budget for one academic year (10 months) is SEK 78 000 (US $12 000 or €8 600).

INSURANCE

All international students are covered by a comprehensive insurance policy provided by the Swedish government, which includes accident cover, costs for transport home in case of illness or accident, liability cover and legal expenses while studying in Sweden.

SWEDISH PERSONAL NUMBER

Students studying for more than one year can apply for a Swedish personal identity number from the tax agency, on arrival in Sweden. This number simplifies many practical transactions and gives access to the same health benefits as Swedes.

Lund University has a network of more than 30 libraries in Lund, Malmö and Helsingborg with an electronic library collection including more than 15 000 e-journals, 500 databases and many e-books.

Academic Life and Student Services

At Lund University students experience an open, informal study environment, with teachers and students usually on a first-name basis.

Teaching is often done in small groups, which encourages dialogue and collaboration, and teachers are accessible outside lecture hours. Students are also tasked with group work, which presents new challenges and opportunities for students and simulates the real dynamics of an international work environment.

Critical thinking and freedom of mind are the cornerstones of academic life at Lund University. Critical thinking refers to the ability to assess information and form independent and well-informed opinions; to scrutinise and question beliefs; to revise opinions in the light of new knowledge; to give and receive criticism in a constructive manner; and to engage in discussion with fellow students and learn from others.

Freedom of mind refers to the ability to think outside the box – to liberate oneself from conventional wisdoms, to value the authenticity of ideas and experiences, and to appreciate and seek fresh perspectives on old ideas. These approaches are stimulated in all activities at the University. In seminars, workshops and experiments, students analyse and present solutions to given problems and assignments. Theoretical concepts are tested in practical situations, and practical experiences are employed to develop and enrich theory.

A large part of the learning process takes place outside the classroom through independent study and discussion of the course material in groups. Class hours vary from course to course. Students at Lund University are trained to efficiently assess large amounts of information with study techniques taught in the classroom, through workshops and by study advisors.

ACADEMIC YEAR

The academic year at Lund University is divided into two semesters, each lasting 20 weeks. A course load of 30 credits per semester equals full-time studies.

Autumn semester:

Late August to mid-January

Spring semester:

Mid-January to early June

STUDENT SERVICES

- International offices at the faculties and the University's central International Desk help international students with academic and practical matters.
- LU Accommodation helps international students with housing.
- The Academic Support Centre offers consultations around academic writing, presentation skills and study skills.
- The Swedish Language Lounge is a weekly social evening where students can practise Swedish. Weekly social activity nights and other events are also offered.
- Student Health Services help students with problems that affect their ability to study.
- Disability Support Services offer learning support services and contact with specialist teachers and mentors.
- The Careers Service helps to prepare students for their transition into working life by giving CV guidance, seminars on the Swedish labour market and information on what recruiters are looking for.
- Student portal and email account services.

UNIQUE STUDENT TRADITIONS

- The doctoral conferment ceremony – a tradition since 1670.
- “Lundakarnevalen”, the student-carnival – a tradition since 1849.
- “Spex” student theatre – one of the most eccentric traditions, since 1886.
- “Studentafton” is a tradition from 1905 organised by the Academic Society, where invited guests are interviewed in an intimate, informal setting.
- The Lund University Male Voice Choir’s annual May Day appearance is a tradition from 1831.
- “Sista April” or “Valborgsmässoafton” is celebrated on 30 April with students gathering in the city park to socialise.

Student Life at Lund

Considered the best student city in Sweden, Lund University is known for its variety of student organisations, including the “nations” of Lund, the Academic Society and student unions. Together these student organisations have created many long-standing student traditions. Their combined activities, available through the “Studentlund” membership, form the heart and soul of student life in Lund today.

THE NATIONS

The 13 nations are large student societies which are unique to Sweden and which organise activities including bars, social clubs, sports, parties, concerts, cheap dinner nights and other fun social events.

THE ACADEMIC SOCIETY

The Academic Society (“Akademiska Föreningen” or “AF”) organises events including “Studentafton” (evening interviews with high profile international guests that have included prime ministers, the Queen of Sweden, Ray Charles and more), student radio, the student TV channel, student theatre, costume hire, “Spex” comedy musicals, lectures, art and cultural events and AF Bostäder accommodation.

STUDENT UNIONS

The student unions handle politics and student rights and organise events such as formal balls, careers fairs and more.

SPORTS

There are plenty of opportunities to participate in all kinds of social or competitive sports through the student nations or by joining local sports clubs. Lund University is also a great base from which to experience the beautiful nature and outdoors of Sweden.

CULTURE

Lund, Malmö and Helsingborg offer a variety of museums, galleries, public events and performances. Lund University even has its own museum of art – Skissernas Museum – the Museum of the Artistic Process and Public Art, founded in 1934.

ARRIVAL DAY

International students are greeted at Copenhagen airport before taking the 40-minute train ride over to Lund. Students are driven from the railway station to the main student building to register their arrival, buy tickets for events, take care of practical matters, collect housing keys and be driven to their accommodation (if provided through LU Accommodation).

ORIENTATION/ INTRODUCTION WEEKS

A programme of practical information sessions and fun social activities is offered for all new international students. Events include visits to attractions in the region, a welcome party, a formal dinner, "Taste of Sweden", a treasure hunt, a sports day, shopping at IKEA and more. The goal is to welcome students, introduce them to the University and create opportunities to make new friends before classes start.

INTERNATIONAL MENTORS

Groups of 15-20 students are assigned international mentors who help welcome new students, show them around their new city/campus, organise informal social activities and help with practical questions throughout the semester.

Exchange Studies

Lund University is ranked as one of the top twenty universities in Europe for student exchange and receives more than 1500 exchange students per year from all over the world.

Lund University has exchange agreements with 680 universities in over 50 countries worldwide, including more than 400 within the EU's Erasmus+ programme. Students can come to Lund University for exchange at both Bachelor's and Master's levels. Exchange students do not pay tuition fees at Lund University.

WHAT ARE EXCHANGE STUDIES?

The term exchange student implies that your home university has a formal agreement to exchange students with Lund University. The agreement can be specific to a faculty or department or a university-wide agreement. You can be nominated by your home university and apply for exchange studies for a period ranging from one semester up to one year.

COURSES FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

The eight faculties/schools at Lund University and various departments offer more than 300 courses taught in English, suitable for exchange students. Courses are offered by:

- Faculty of Engineering
- Faculty of Science
- School of Economics and Management
- Faculty of Social Sciences
- Faculty of Law
- Faculties of Humanities and Theology
- Faculty of Medicine
- Faculty of Fine and Performing Arts

In addition exchange students can apply for:

- Special Area Studies on Scandinavian and European cultural interest areas
- Introductory Swedish language course during the orientation programme
- Swedish language courses during the semester

ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

For non-native English speakers coming on an exchange, an internationally recognised test of English proficiency, e.g. the internet-based TOEFL test (90) or IELTS (6.5) is recommended.

APPLYING FOR EXCHANGE STUDIES

The first step is to apply through your home university to be nominated for an exchange. You apply through your central International Office or an international coordinator at your faculty.

The application periods for students nominated for studies at Lund University are:

1 April–25 April
for autumn semester studies

1 October–25 October
for spring semester studies

Study Abroad

Lund University offers a range of Study Abroad programmes and packages which give non-European students a unique study experience in Sweden. In contrast to exchange studies, Study Abroad is a tuition-based, one-way mobility programme.

TAILOR MADE STUDY ABROAD PACKAGES

We design specialised study abroad packages for other universities, national scholarship programmes or other organisations which enable their students to study specific subject areas or Scandinavian special interest topics. Study Abroad packages can range from short courses during a semester, a summer programme or up to a year of full-time studies. E-mail: studyabroad@er.lu.se

STUDY ABROAD SWEDISH LANGUAGE PROGRAMMES

Individual students can also apply directly to our Study Abroad Swedish Language programmes, which are designed for non-EU students who have a Swedish family connection, a special interest in Scandinavia or who wish to go on to study courses and programmes taught in Swedish at higher education institutes in Sweden. The programmes cover levels 1-4 or 5-8 within one semester or a 1-year programme covering levels 1-8. To be eligible you must have completed upper-secondary school studies and meet English language proficiency "English 6" (IELTS 6.5 or TOEFL 90).

Visit www.lunduniversity.lu.se/study-abroad

PhD Studies

Lund University offers PhD studies at all eight faculties. There are no tuition fees for PhD studies at Lund University. The most common form of funding for postgraduate study is through appointment to a doctoral studentship or a doctoral study grant position. The University employs the doctoral candidate as a staff member and pays a salary whilst you undertake your studies and perform some departmental and teaching duties (no more than 20% of a full-time position). Doctoral candidates may also be funded through external scholarships or international government programmes.

PhD studies are organised at department level. You apply directly to the department when PhD positions are advertised. You contact the department directly regarding PhD studies with external scholarships or funding.
